County Manager Drew Cummings to Host Listening Sessions

GRANVILLE COUNTY ADMINISTRATION: Granville County Manager Drew Cummings will host a series of listening sessions in each Granville County district from September through November 2023. The listening sessions will provide the opportunity for members of the public to learn more about county government, the role of the County Manager, and to ask questions or give feedback about county operations in a relaxed informal environment. Cummings will be joined by members of the Granville County Board of Commissioners along with other county staff members.

“We have had an eventful year since I began as County Manager and I thought it was time to get out in the community and make sure that I’m getting face-to-face time with our residents,” said Cummings. “I have spent time in all corners of Granville during my tenure as County Manager, but I’m really looking forward to getting to know some of these communities better and to having the time to sit down and talk with our residents. I think it’s critical to my performance that each citizen can inform me about the issues that are truly important to them.”

The listening sessions will begin at 6:30 p.m. at the dates and locations listed below:

- Thursday, September 14 at Stem Ruritan Club (3595 Old NC 75, Stem)
- Thursday, October 5 at Granville County Senior Center (107 Lanier Street, Oxford)
- Thursday, October 12 at Tar River Elementary (2642 Philo White Road, Franklinton)
- Tuesday, October 17 at Camp Oak Hill (1528 Oak Hill Road, Oxford)
- Thursday, October 26 at Creedmoor Community Center (116 Douglas Drive, Creedmoor)
- Monday, October 30 at Butner Town Hall (415 Central Avenue, Butner)
- Tuesday, November 14 at Stovall Library (300 Main Street, Stovall)
